

How the Turtle got its Shell

Before Pangaea was over, Turtle was as bare as human skin. One day Turtle was walking as usual and Snake came by and said, "I am the greatest of all animals." The next day Turtle was guarding her eggs and Snake came by and said, "I am going to eat your eggs." So Turtle and Snake fought and Turtle tripped over a hollow rock and found out that the rock was stuck on her. It took her a couple of hours to find out that it was snug and stylish. That is how Turtle got her shell.
